Include a Brief Description: Provide a short description (100 words max) explaining the inspiration behind your video and the key messages you aim to convey.

I hereby release my broadcast media and/or digital art submission to Walnut Valley Water District for use in promoting water education and conservation. In addition, I certify that this is my original work. By signing this form, I am also giving permission to reproduce or have my entry on public display. Although every effort will be made to return each project, I understand loss and damage may occur and, therefore release Walnut Valley Water District, its employees, officers, and representatives from any responsibility.
